Gendered Impacts of Extractivism:
Modern Forms of Slavery

Featured Speakers:
Simona Broomes, President of the Guyana Women Miners Organization
Viviana Tacha-Gutierrez, Colombian Human Rights Lawyer
Samantha Hargreaves, WoMin Regional Coordinator, International Alliance on Natural Resources in Africa (IANRA)
Betty Obbo, National Association of Professional Environmentalists (NAPE), Uganda
Sofia Vergara, Oxfam America, Advocacy Advisor on Extractives Industries
Moderator: Rosa G. Lizarde, Global Director, Feminist Task Force

Plenary Session: Interactive discussion about human trafficking, the gendered impacts of extractivism and the Post 2015 agenda

Date: Wednesday, March 12th
Hour: 8:30 – 10am
Venue: Church Center for the United Nations, 10th floor
777 1st Ave, E 44th st
New York, NY, 10017

Sponsors:
The Mining Working Group at the UN
Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd Feminist Task Force
Franciscans International
Oxfam America
Sisters of Mercy, Mercy International Association at the UN
Society of Catholic Medical Mission Sisters

Coffee and tea will be served

www.miningwg.wordpress.com